MODEL of AURARIA and DENVER CITY in 1860.

Constructed from data selected and supplied by Edgar C. Mc Mechen.

AURARIA

A reputed "title" was acquired by the Auraria Town Company, from John S. Smith, Wm. McGee, alias Jack Jones, and Nicholas Jansse, all old Indian traders who claimed "ranches" on the site by nominal virtue of marriage to Indian wives. They gave possession to the Auraria Town Company about Nov. 1, 1858. ~ ~

DENVER CITY

On September 24, 1858, the Lawrence Party from Kansas, organized the St. Charles Town Company and claimed 640 acres on the east bank of Cherry Creek. This site was "jumped" November 17, 1858 by General William Larimer's Party from Leavenworth, and named Denver City. x x x x x
